Who we are

About Our Couture

Pranna

An idyllic piece of clothing depends upon a few important factors and we at Pranna consider those by adding life to our creations. Everything we design, conveys an individualistic style.

In 2016, our journey started in Mumbai, a bespoke and custom made Indian couture. We have got you covered for every occasion, from wedding trousseau to classic, comfortable outfits, ready to wear for all seasons.

About the Designer - Kiran Shah

Her passion for fashion brings out the style of every woman in the clothing designed by her and her team. Her designs make a statement and she resonates with a famous saying by Oscar de la Renta - "Style is more about being yourself."

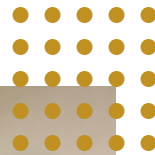

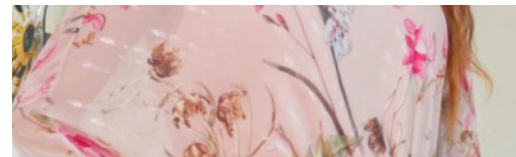

Fashion is a power, an identity & a language...
